NO BOLSHEVISM NEEDED.
A BATTLESHIP, HARDLY.
REMEMBERED, MILDLY.
THE WORLD LOVES TITLES.

—By Arthur Brisbane—
(Copyright 1929, By King Features

In one column you read about a "mob" of 1,200 idle men, fighting police in Cleveland, several in the mob injured, officers hurt.

In another column you find comfort, perhaps in news from Washington that our national banks have resources of over $29,000,000,000.

Seven thousand four hundred and eight institutions have on deposit more than $22,000,000,000.

A country so rich could not have so many men willing to work and idle.

You are told that the mob of rioting unemployed in Cleveland had been influenced by "Bolshevik propaganda."

It is very easy to say "Bolshevikism" but when a man is out of work, worried and perhaps hungry, he needs no help from Lenin to make him dangerously dissatisfied.

Men adrift on a raft in mid-ocean that had never heard of Lenin or bolshevism have killed and eaten each other.

The British possess the greatest fighting ship in the world, the Rodney, built and paid for.

Innocent Senator Borah and Representatives Britten suggested that the British should scrap that ship in the interest of lovely world peace.

At that British statesmen smile politely and say they really can't quite do it.

This guileless nation, after the Washington conference, destroyed and threw on the junk pile splendid new battleships, including some not completed.

And the British destroyed some pretty blueprints.

They probably would oblige us by preparing and destroying some more blueprints. But when it comes to destroying a finished battleship costing millions of pounds, that is something else.

In honor of Lincoln's birthday banks and the stock exchange closed.

Some mild editorials were printed here and there the Gettysburg speech was read.

But the dead were very dead.

One hundred and twenty-three million Americans appreciate our three greatest men, Washington, Franklin and Lincoln. But they appreciate them quietly, and for a majority of us they are not very real.

The world still loves titles. In a Los Angeles lawsuit about money collected for a newly invented religious "cult" you meet a mild-looking gentleman called "the four winds of the whirlwinds."

He wrote his typewriter 50,000 pages dictated by angels to the priestesses of the "great eleven cult."

"Concords of stars led the priestesses to various locations, and there the angels did their dictating."

Men and women gave tens of thousands of dollars in return for nonsense of this kind, which proves that the human race is largely foolish.

Republican statesmen, their names not mentioned, are said to be agitated because a Democrat has been elected to Congress from Calvin Coolidge's district in Massachusetts.

This is considered a reflection on Republican party government, and the "statesmen" to employ the popular pseudonym, wonder what in the world could make any voter dissatisfied.

Perhaps some Americans in Massachusetts think it is about time for the government to concentrate on something more constructive than whisky.

Thomas A. Edison believes that, prohibition is possible and sure to come. "Fully automatic machinery," Edison says, will provide the laborer with a home and many luxuries, but he must not drink.

In spite of Uncle Sam's ardent and foolish appeal, through his London delegates, for the abolition of submarines, the submarine, unfortunately for this country, and thanks to France and Japan, will remain.

The British, dependent for their food supply on surface craft, to which submarines are fatal, naturally want the submarines abolished.

This nation would like to oblige with them undoubtedly in any effort to thwart starvation tactics.

But we need submarines in the present state of international barbarism, to make our harbors, coasts, island possessions and the Panama canal safe.

And the safety of this country, not of Great Britain, should be the first consideration of those on the American government's payroll.

SERVICE DIRECTOR PLANS CLEANUP

Women In Prohibition Attack

MAKES PLEA FOR REFERENDUM ON DRY AMENDMENT

Vote Would Not Be Legal, Is Opinion Of Many Authorities

CLAIMS BOTH SIDES SHOULD HAVE VOICE

"Results In Pools Would Indicate True Wish Of Majority"

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—Declaring prohibition has substituted the "co-educational speakeasy" for the saloon, women leaders in the fight on the eighteenth amendment, appealed to the house judiciary committee today to restore control of liquor traffic to the states.

Spokesmen for women's anti-prohibition organizations claiming more than 100,000 members, pronounced conditions worse than before prohibition and backed the proposal of Mrs. Mary T. Norton, Democratic congresswoman from New Jersey, for a national referendum.

She told the committee, which is conducting hearings on bills to repeal or amend the eighteenth amendment, the prohibition question will never be settled until it is determined by the people themselves.

Although her novel message of submitting her constitution amendment to a vote has been called illegal by some lawyers, she defended it as a practical and just measure.

Taking command of the first stages of today's hearing, Mrs. Norton presented to support her plea Mrs. Charles H. Sabin, wife of a prominent and widely-known New York banker; Miss M. Louis Gross, of New York, chairman of the Women's Moderation Union and Mrs. David Holmes Martin, of New York, of the Association for repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment.

With Mrs. Sabin, who resigned from the Republican national committee as a result of differences over prohibition, are 30 women from a half dozen states, all asserting prohibition has proved a failure.

Mrs. Norton declared her novel method of a referendum offers a practical solution of the present situation.

She proposed to submit an amendment for repeal of the eighteenth amendment subject to a referendum vote by the states. If the amendment is repealed, the states would be left in control of the liquor traffic, under the resolution.

STRIKE ENDS IN NEW YORK AREA

Workers Score Victories During Brief Activities; Action Proved Costly

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—The shortest strike in any major industry in New York was on record today as a result of the formal settling last night of the dressmakers' walkout.

The strike started February 4 when the dressmakers demanded elimination of the sweat shop, shorter hours and higher pay.

Under the terms of the agreement reached 22,000 will return to work at additional strikers, employed by independent concerns, will remain idle until separate agreements are reached with their employers.

A forty-hour week was one of the victories of the strike, which was estimated to have cost New York manufacturers $15,000,000 in lost production.

Charged with causing a motor truck to be operated on the Cox Highway west of Salem with an overload, Earl Singer of East Liverpool, part owner of the East Liverpool & Pittsburgh Motor Express company entered a plea of guilty when given a hearing before Justice of the Peace M. K. Zimmerman at Lisbon and was fined $50 and costs.

Singer admitted that he was hauling two tons over weight, the steel castings weighing 12 tons in addition to the weight of the truck, which was being driven by Elmer Johnson.

The charge against Singer was preferred by Deputy Sheriff C. E. Donahay.

Miner Killed

BELLAIRE, O., Feb. 13.—Injuries which he suffered in a fall in the stone Schick mine, near here, today had caused the death of John Johnson, 38-year-old miner.

HENRY FORD TO BUILD SCHOOLS TO OPERATE UNDER NEW POLICIES

Will Give Graduates Of Institutions Some Definite Aim

FORT MYERS, FLA., Feb. 13.—Tends to build a number of schools Henry Ford plans to dedicate the rest of his life to education. He in various parts of the country—how many he does not yet know—but some of them will be very large institutions. He said today he "would not be surprised" if he invested one hundred million dollars in the project.

"I want to do all in my power to help young men of America to fit themselves into the world," said Mr. Ford. "Society owes it to the young people to educate them for useful citizenship and, for my part, I am going to devote the rest of my active days in the interest of trade schools and training."

"I intend to invest my money in my own way. I have a definite plan. Consequently I do not wish to be bothered by suggestions from persons who never made or saved a dollar, telling me how to spend a million. The schools will be strategically located throughout the country. I am not yet prepared to say where they will be situated. But our school, the Edison Institute of Technology at Dearborn, Mich., will be the principal school, the nucleus of the other educational institutions."

Should Learn Trades
"Every boy should learn a trade. He should have something to fall back on, something to keep his mind active and keep him out of trouble. I believe there should be a technical school in every industrial institution."

"When students come out of school, at 18 or 20, people should

GIN TEST CASE FALLS THROUGH

Magistrate Does Not See Chance Of Imposing Any Penalty

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—The case against a citizen here, charged with buying a half-pint of gin, which the local authorities planned to prosecute as a test case to see if the purchaser of liquor can be convicted under the provision of the dry law, fell by the wayside today.

The police court magistrate decided the government would be unable to secure a conviction against the defendant. He explained it was necessary to have the bootleg testimony to send the gin before a case could be made. Then, too, he said, the seller would plead ignorance or refuse to testify because he would incriminate himself on the selling charge.

Just before announcement the case would be dismissed, the treasury department declared if a conviction were given the government would undertake to prosecute all purchasers of liquor.

Heretofore they have been unimpaired unless they carried liquors to retail.

Joseph Patrick Carley, 40, was the man singled out for the test case. Detectives claimed they saw him leave a speakeasy with a half-pint of gin. He refused to tell where he bought it and they could not learn the identity of the seller.

Company Indicted For Sales Method

MOONSVILLE, W. VA., Feb. 13.—Two indictments, charging attempts to coerce and compel employees to purchase supplies at company stores had been returned today against the Glendale Coal company here.

It is believed that it is the first case of its kind ever to involve a coal company. Marshall county officials said.

Salem Pastor Visits Ohio State Capital

Rev. George D. Keister, pastor of the English Lutheran church, and chairman of the Luther league committee of the Synod of Ohio, was in Columbus Thursday to meet with the general committee of the Synod of Ohio.

The committee will arrange the program for the Lutheran summer school of missions and church work, which will be held July 21-27 at Lakeside, on Lake Erie. The school has been held for the past eight years at Lakeside.

Varied Manner Of Living Followed By Those Rulers Who Lost Power In Native Land

PARIS, Feb. 13.—Just what do exiled kings and emperors do to pass the time now that the March of Democracy has swept so many of them from their thrones?

In an effort to answer this query, a study of the various royal figures who have been cast into exile from their native lands in the last few years has been made. Almost all of them have turned to extremely modest pursuits to while away the hours formerly spent in signing documents and reviewing troops.

One or two have taken up commercial enterprises because of lack of funds, and none if it is overburdened with wealth.

POTATOES TOPIC AT MEETING OF FARMERS HERE

Expect Two Hundred At Gathering During This Afternoon

SPECIALISTS GIVE VARIED LECTURES

Four Counties Send Men To Sessions; Annual Affair Here

One hundred twenty-five potato growers from four northeastern Ohio counties gathered at the Memorial building for the annual district potato-growers conference here today.

Delegations were present from Columbiana, Mahoning, Stark and Carroll counties this morning while the entire attendance is expected to pass the 200-mark in this afternoon's meeting at which M. K. Baker, of the United States department of agriculture, will be the principal speaker.

E. B. Tussing, specialist of the Ohio State university at Columbus, discussed "Relation of Production to Marketing" in the first speech this morning, giving an illustrated talk on methods which secure best results in potato growing and the effect that all production has on the potato market.

C. W. Hauck, Ohio State university marketing specialist, discussing "Influence of Chain Stores," was the second speaker.

State Expert Speaks
Hauck explained the changes in wholesale and retail business in the past 10 years as brought about by chain stores. He discussed the effect chain stores have on potato marketing and farming in general.

General discussion of potato growing in an open forum followed the two speeches this morning.

Z. C. Hedge of Canfield, Mahoning county extension agent, presided over this morning's conference as chairman.

Baker is scheduled to speak on the subject "Potato Grades and Their Application" in this afternoon's sessions. C. W. Hauck, marketing specialist of the Ohio state department of agriculture is to speak on "Selling to Retailers and Consumers" and Hauck will discuss "A New Venture in Cooperative Marketing of Potatoes in Ohio."

Open forum discussions of all talks will be held after each speech. The meeting is sponsored by the inter-county extension agencies in eastern Ohio.

PUPILS INJURED IN HEAVY BLAST

Two Men Killed, Property Damage Will Run To Large Figures

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—To men were killed today and 25 school children were cut by flying glass, two seriously, when an explosion wrecked a garage and shattered the windows of a school across the way.

The explosion occurred in a garage at Schenectady avenue and Bergen street in Brooklyn.

The blast caused great excitement among the 1800 school children. Parents added to the confusion by fighting police in an attempt to see if their children were safe.

Five ambulances and two emergency wagons were called to the scene.

Former Resident Dies

David Kendig, of St. Louis, former resident of this vicinity, was killed Wednesday morning. Relatives here have been advised. No details of the accident were given.

Former Minister of County Church Dies

Rev. Charles S. Williams, 76, of Owens Village, south of Marion, O., died suddenly of cerebral hemorrhage Wednesday.

Rev. Williams was a minister in the Friends church for more than 45 years. He was a former Salem resident and was pastor of the Gurney Friends church at Winona, at one time. He had preached in Michigan and for a number of years had engaged in evangelistic work in the west.

Hughes Opponents Worry Leaders Of Administration

Doubt Of Confirmation Is Becoming Prevalent In Washington

Washington, Feb. 13.—The administration majority in the senate, frankly worried, planned to force a vote today on confirmation of Charles Evans Hughes as chief justice of the United States in the belief that further delay will endanger his tentative seat on the supreme court.

The opposition to Hughes, growing from this air, has swept through the senate like a prairie fire, until private polls indicated 34 senators would vote against his confirmation. Administration leaders however admitted only 20 votes in opposition, the foes of Hughes would need only 14 more converts to defeat his confirmation—something that has never happened to a nominee for chief justice in the history of the country.

The opposition may seek to recommit Hughes' nomination to the senate judiciary committee for further investigation. If this maneuver succeeds, Hughes will be invited before the committee to explain his legal activities for various corporations.

May Be Questioned
One suggestion has been made privately that he be asked to disclose the total amount of his retainers, said to have averaged $500,000 a year, and their sources since he resigned as secretary of state. He would also be asked to reveal the identity of his corporate clients at the present time.

The fight against Hughes was based solely on his public attitude toward economic questions involving property rights and the interests (Continued on Page 5)

DISORDERS FACE CLEVELAND WITH DEMONSTRATIONS

Communists Fire Jobless In Street Meeting; Date Is Set

CLEVELAND, Feb. 13.—Incited by fiery appeals to "answer police brutality," Cleveland's army of the unemployed was making preparations today for a demonstration February 26 in "mighty protest against police terrorism."

The preparations follow a mass meeting of 300 of the city's jobless in public square here last evening which was called by leaders in the Communist organization in protest to police action in the now-famous "riot of the unemployed" on the steps of city hall Tuesday.

Incendiary oratory of the Communist leaders fanned the flame of resentment in the mob of 300 unemployed as two policemen stood by, hearing the unkind remarks shot at them. Ten Johnson, young Communist organizer who was recently convicted of criminal syndicalism in St. Clairsville, O., exhorted the mob to "give a decisive answer to police action."

Two rioters who were charged with assault and battery on Lieut. Oliver Torrence in the wild melee on City hall's steps Tuesday were scheduled for arraignment in municipal court here today.

One of the rioters, Sol Jagoda, 21, said to be of Youngstown, is still in city hospital today in a serious condition with a broken vertebrae received in Tuesday's riot.

Damascus Youth Is Honored at School

COLUMBUS, Feb. 13.—Robert L. Smith, of Damascus, was elected Tuesday to membership in the Ohio State university chapter of Phi Eta Sigma, national freshman scholarship fraternity. Smith is a freshman in the college of commerce and administration.

Eighty-two students were elected to the fraternity this quarter. A freshman must have "A" in half his subjects and an average of "B" in the other half to be eligible for membership in the organization.

WATER SYSTEM OF CITY WILL BE RENOVATED

Streets and City Property Draw Attention Of Reich In Plan

TO WRECK SHEDS IN REAR OF HALL

Standpipe, Basins, Mains To Be Sterilized In Few Weeks Time

Plans for a general cleanup of all Salem streets, water mains, storage basins, gravity lines and extensive improvements at the waterworks pumping station were announced today by Service Director Clyde R. Reich.

Reich outlined a program for the spring months and issued the announcement that first steps towards completion of plans will be taken early Friday morning when main streets of the municipality's business district will be cleaned.

Armed with great lengths of four-inch fire hose, four members of the department, under Reich's supervision, will use hydraulic pressure to force the heavy collections of dirt and other debris, collected during the winter months, from East State st. and South Broadway tomorrow.

East State will be cleaned between Lincoln and Ellsworth avenues while Broadway will be gone over between East State and Pershing st. By an order issued by Reich in cooperation with the police department today, no parking will be permitted on these streets between the hours of 4 and 6 a. m. the time set for the cleaning operations.

Cleaning of the central streets of the city's business will serve a double purpose, Reich explains, in that it will also result in a cleanup of the water mains located in the heart of the city.

Other streets will be cleaned by the same method at regular intervals during spring months, as often as the weather permits, Reich stated.

To Clean Standpipe

The water standpipe, located in the east section of the city, near the city hospital, will be drained and sterilized soon and all storage basins, gravity lines and pipe lines are also included in the program for cleaning during the spring. It will be the first time in nine years that the standpipe has been cleaned.

Efforts will be made to beautify the waterworks pumping station. The lawn will be graded and a new garage will be constructed in the rear where service department trucks and the city's road building equipment will be stored.

The overhead air-line at the pumping station will be removed and be installed underground.

The old, wooden sheds in the rear of city hall, considered by many an eyesore and a fire hazard, will be taken down and a recreational playground laid out for firemen and policemen. With the removal of the sheds, seldom used because of their age, space will be provided for horseshoe playing pits and a small playground, baseball diamond for practice purposes.

The storage basins in the city will be cleaned by draining and hosing following which they will be steamed to kill all harmful bacteria.

Children Adopted By County People

LISBON, Feb. 13.—Three children, sons of Francis Wheatley of Salineville, the mother of whom died several years ago, now have new homes, they having been adopted following proceedings in Probate Court before Judge Lodge Riddle Wednesday.

Fustus Wheatley, aged 4 years has been adopted by George H. and Katharine Jewell of Salineville while Samuel Wheatley, aged 6 years and Francis Wheatley, aged 7 years have been adopted by Melvin C. and Beatrice M. House, also of Salineville.

Commissioners Hear Neill Case Evidence

LISBON, Feb. 13.—The first of a series of hearings on complaints against John P. Neill, superintendent of the Columbiana county home, were in progress before county commissioners today. Two witnesses were examined this morning and three were scheduled for this afternoon.

Commissioners will render a decision after the hearing have been completed. Dates for future action have not been set.

RELIGION DOESN'T DIE

The Soviet government, proceeding on the supposition that communism is the only true religion, has steadily and ruthlessly sought to destroy all church buildings and religious organization in Russia. It is reported that its efforts have met with moderate success, considering that it must uproot an institution enshrined in the hearts of millions of peasants for centuries. Recently, on Lenin's birthday, a monastery hallowed by centuries-old tradition was blasted and carried piecemeal to be dumped into a river. Churches whose interiors are priceless gems of architectural beauty are being utilized for the storage of grain and other farm produce. Sunday has been abolished, although there is still a day set apart for the workman's rest. It has been officially declared that by 1933 not a single church, synagogue or sectarian religious establishment will remain standing.

It is a deplorable situation. The Russian church may have been in need of reform, and the subjugation of the peasantry by the church hierarchy was undoubtedly a factor in the uprising that put a portion of the masses in power, but to make such a sweeping change in national religious policy can do nothing but harm. Much of the artistic heritage of Russia lies in her fine old church buildings. Their destruction means an irredeemable loss in material values as well as the suppression of a great and necessary opportunity for spiritual expression. The world has suffered from the ravages of religious organizations when they became corrupt, but it humanity has never reached lower levels than when religion was utterly lacking.

Religion does not die, however, when its manifestations are prohibited. The Romans proved that when their persecution of the Christians gave that new faith the incentive it needed to spread over Europe. Soviet Russia has evidently forgotten that in her blind zeal for a new and efficient state.

"UNDIES" AND WORLD PEACE

Miss Frances Perkins, industrial commissioner of the New York state department of labor, told the Chicago League of Women Voters that artificial silk underwear is a contributing factor toward world peace.

Miss Perkins explained that artificial silk is made from gun cotton, which is the basis of many of our high explosives. The pulp which is spun into artificial silk, she went on to say, is made by the same process as charges for guns and cannons. Therefore, keep the munition plants so busy manufacturing artificial silk that they won't have time to think in terms of cannon balls, was her advice.

What simpler, in the light of this tip to the girls, than the maintenance of world peace? Naval reduction! Armament limitation! Why bother with them, when all the girls have to do to assure the blessing peace to a war-weary world is to wear more artificial silk "undies."

"The preceding paragraph, it is no more than fair to this woman official of New York state to say, is not run as an outline of her utterance, but is given merely as an conception of what might have been an extenuation of the talk she went all the way to Chicago to unload upon the women voters of that city. Is it any wonder that tax burdens are heavy when job-holders are paid to chase about the country postulating remote connections between silk underwear and ammunition?"

The New York Times editorially states that it will not be long until reindeer meat is served in all big city hotels and restaurants. Why pay transportation charges on reindeer meat from the Far North when goats are easily raised right here at home?

The chief censor of Jugoslavia has been dismissed for permitting the news of the unveiling of the memorial tablet to the memory of the assassin of Archduke Ferdinand and to get to the outside world. The Jugoslavian government can hardly be blamed for seeking to suppress the matter; it has good reason to be ashamed of it.

What Others Say

BUREAUCRATIC FUTILITY

The Federal Trade commission has just settled a case against the American Association of Advertisers. The association, which is a national organization of newspaper and magazine publishers, was found to have violated the act in December, 1924. A little more than five years ago, it involved protracted hearings in five different cities stretching from the Atlantic to the Mississippi and entailed a cost of the defendants of several hundred thousand dollars in counsel fees and incidentals. If we add to this the time and effort wasted by the commission itself, it will be seen how great was the expenditure by society on this useless proceeding.

It is not our intention here to enter into the merits of this case, but merely to cite it as typical of the activities of this bureaucratic board. Since its establishment in the second Wilson administration the Trade commission has been successful in about one out of every five of the actions it has instituted, and in the meantime it has put American industry to a burden of expense in justifying its methods wholly out of proportion to the reforms it has obtained.

Perhaps there should be some authority in Washington to pass judgment on business practice as it affects commodities in interstate commerce. It is obvious, however, that its powers should be so defined that their exercise becomes not a nuisance but a help to national industry. So far the Federal Trade commission has qualified principally in the nuisance class. Clothed with the prerogatives of policeman, prosecutor and judge and bedeviled by an amazing turnover in personnel, it has sought to excuse its existence by starting a multiplicity of things it couldn't finish, to the unseemliness of trade and the confusion of business standards. Not all its members, it should be noted, have been happy in pursuing this policy. Judge Humphrey, its former chairman and still one of its commissioners, strongly dissented from the majority opinion when the question of its jurisdiction over the case already mentioned first came up in 1926, but his voice crying in the wilderness. Notwithstanding his cogent arguments at the time, it forced ahead to the debacle noted.

Colonel William J. Donovan, former assistant attorney general of the United States, has recently suggested that the Trade commission be changed "from a body having the combined powers and duties of investigator, prosecutor and judge into a body advisory and judicial." In an address before the New York State Bar association he urged that "the attorney general alone should have the authority to institute proceedings to prevent and restrain violations of the Sherman law," and that except in criminal cases he should bring such proceedings before the Trade commission. Unfair competition cases, he thought, should be instituted before the commission not only by the attorney general but by private litigants, and should be subject to review either by the circuit court of appeals or by a specially-constituted court.

In principle we heartily agree with these recommendations. Something certainly should be done to prevent such irresponsible procedure as that described above.—New York Herald Tribune.

HEALTH

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland

BANISH HARMFUL HABITS

What habits have you that may cause ill health?

Is there some pet food that always make you sick and yet which you cannot resist? Eating habits are among our worst practices.

Do you run into the open air, hot and perspiring perhaps, but reckless of what sudden exposure may do to your health? Lots of good women do that, and too many men.

Are you just as careful as you should be about cleanliness of the skin, particularly of every part of the body where two skin surfaces come together? If not the itching, burning and discomfort in these regions are accounted for easily.

What care do you give the nose? The use of soiled handkerchiefs and failure to practice cleanliness of nostrils may account for frequent colds.

What about the eyes? Does it hurt to read or sew? Do you have eyecatches and headaches and other pains that might be traced to eyestrain? If your glasses have not been changed for a long time, or if you have never had your eyes examined, it is time to see about them.

Do you hear as well as you did? If not, why not? Perhaps there is too much wax in the canal, or that some other ear trouble needs attention.

What about the intestinal tract? Do you have regular bowel action? If there is constipation, or if the movements are too free, something is wrong with the eating, or other personal habits.

These are a few of the many symptoms and a hint as to several organs that may be troubling you. After you have considered these, give a little study to your own physique, if you are not feeling exactly fit. Serious thought will lead you to some conclusions which will help your doctor a lot.

Now, as I've reached the point: Don't wait till you are really sick before seeing the doctor. The greatest pleasure the doctor has, is not to struggle with desperate disease. Rather it is to prevent sickness.

The doctor can't be very proud when he is reminded of a sick, debilitated, broken-down patient. When he smiles it is when you remind the doctor of some red-checked, cherry-lipped, robust individual and ask him how he ever did it!

I beg of you to be healthy by keeping well, not by getting well. Take care of your ailments just as soon as they arrive. Form such habits of living that you won't have ailments.

That's that!

Meteor Chip Found

By Farmer In Ohio

KENTON, O., Feb. 13.—What is believed to be a meteor chip which fell during a weird "fireworks" display in the sky several weeks ago has been found by Walter Leffler, a farmer living near Belle Center, southwest of here.

The display, according to witnesses, was visible in Ohio, Michigan, Indiana and Kentucky. The fragment weighs about three pounds, and was deeply imbedded in the earth.

A COLD

As soon as you realize you've taken cold—take some tablets of Bayer Aspirin. Almost before your head aches and pains you felt coming on will soon subside.

Relief is almost instantaneous! Even if your cold has gained headway, and your temples throb and your very bones ache, these tablets will bring prompt relief.

It is better, of course, to take Bayer Aspirin at the very first sneeze or cough—it will head-off the cold and spare you much discomfort. Get the genuine, with proven directions for colds and headaches; neuralgia, neuritis, sore throat, and many important uses.

The Pennsylvania railroad telegraph department is about to inaugurate a series of experiments with wireless telegraph apparatus to determine its utility and practicability for railroad work.

A snow storm that threatened for the second time this winter to completely tie up traffic in Salem and paralyze the business of the city, began early Friday afternoon. The snow was swept by a strong gale. This morning there were drifts everywhere.

Youngstown is now claiming a population of about 80,000.

The present meeting of the North-eastern Ohio Teachers' association in Cleveland is the largest ever held by the association. Nearly 3,000 are registered, among them several Salem teachers.

Florence and Anna Carr, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Carr, Ellsworth rd., entertained at a Valentine dancing party Saturday afternoon in Calumet hall.

C. D. Harris, McKinley ave., went to Cleveland Saturday with the intention of looking over the automobile market. Mr. Harris intends to buy a machine.

Mrs. Mary Carr Curtis, Damascus rd., went to Pittsburgh Saturday where she will speak in the Pittsburgh churches for three weeks.

Miss Alice W. Penrose, who is teaching in Cleveland, will visit over Sunday with her parents here.

Mrs. E. C. Hamann went to Pittsburgh Saturday to make her home. She has been visiting for the past three weeks with Mrs. Charles Crawford, Sharp st.

Butler Grange—Elwood Miller is rejoicing over a gas well found on his place Tuesday. He will have gas installed in his residence.

The Hotel Shriver, formerly the Colonial, will be closed on Feb. 28, when the present lease expires. Joseph Shriver, the proprietor, has decided not to re-lease the hotel.

The Stars Say

For Friday, February 11

Conflicting prognostications must be made from the predominant sway of contradictory aspects of the planets. Conspicuously of benefit will be the breaking up of long-congested conditions and the removal of old obstacles, but also there is an element of peril in the use of funds and through faulty contracts.

Those whose birthday it is may welcome a year in which crystallized conditions may be broken to make way for fresh progress, but be prudent with all moneys and be careful with writings and contracts.

A child born on this day may be diligent, practical and hard-working, but may also be disposed to unwise use of its funds, unless well schooled.

OUR READERS

HAS SUGGESTION

Dear Sir:

We have read a great deal about prohibition. Through our government, state and city officials are trying to enforce the law, seemingly without any or little results as far as the drinking of liquor is concerned. Now nor never will they succeed in making America dry as long as men and let me say also women, persist in drinking liquor. I read a poem the other day, which in my opinion gave a million more homes better results, as anything ever yet tried. Many folks no doubt have read the same poem, but how many have realized the meaning and truth in those words. Not many I am sure. The last two lines of each verse, but the last one read like this: The lips that touch liquor, shall never touch mine. Those words were spoken by a young woman, deeply in love, to her sweetheart, who had been drinking liquor. No doubt that young man has learned to leave liquor alone. For this I speak from experience. Not that I was what one would call a drunkard. No, but I did use liquor at times, and it sure did get up my temper. Nor was I told in those same words, but they had the same meaning. So it seems to me that a great deal of this problem lies with the present day before then, and there will be no American women. Why not make a real appeal to the women folks of this country? Work upon their character, and try to make them see and realize, the dishonor, disgrace, and immorality which is in the act of drinking liquor, let alone the results. If this can be done, then America can have prohibition, not after he is master of himself again, he can come back and her lips shall be ready to meet his. At least 95 percent of such cases will succeed and then the liquor traffic will be doomed. It is in the hands of the American women if they could only be made to realize it.

GANG LEADERS ENTANGLED IN POLICE SWEEP

Dragnet Catches Several Carrying Guns, Hope For Convictions

Chicago, Feb. 13.—Three gang leaders of notoriety in Chicago's underworld today faced grand jury action for gun-toting after the latest police drive on hoodlums last night netted seven gangsters of repute.

Continuing their wholesale drive of underworld characters which has resulted in the seizure of more than 2,000 questionable characters, and the indictment of more than a score on charges of gun carrying, police last night cornered the seven gang leaders in a West side restaurant.

The three who are to be tried on gun-carrying charges are Bernard O'Donnell, "Three Finger Jack" White, convicted murderer and labor terrorist; and George "Red" Barker, alleged gunman and dictator and terrorist for the coal teamsters' union. Over 400 others were seized yesterday.

The four others upon whom police hope to fasten charges are Myles O'Donnell, beer vending clerk; Mike Quirk, charged several times for murder; Edward Simek; and John O'Connor.

Myles O'Donnell fainted at police headquarters when a photographer discharged a flashlight behind him. When revived he explained he thought he had been shot.

OFFICER SHOTS TO SAVE LIVES

Kills Gunman When He Was Ready To Shoot At Other Police; Dies Instantly

CLEVELAND, Feb. 13.—Two policemen today owed their lives to Patrolman John Zicarelli, one of the "dead shots" of the police department.

Zicarelli shot and killed Aaron Glover, 24, when the latter aimed his pistol at Sergeant Anthony Cerba and Patrolman Thomas Perry who were searching a suspect in a house to which they had been drawn by a shot fired as they were cruising the neighborhood.

Cerba and Perry had preceded Zicarelli into the house. Zicarelli entered just in time to see Glover aim his gun at the two officers. The patrolman fired before Glover could pull the trigger. The gunman dropped dead.

Police officials who investigated the shooting declared it justifiable.

Gin Purchaser Held By Police; Test Case

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—The local authorities today have a case to test regarding the newly-formulated policy of enforcing the prohibition law against purchasers of liquor.

Joseph Patrick Carley, 40, was arrested as he emerged from a speakeasy within a block of the department of justice.

Detectives said they found a half pint of "gin" on him, and he admitted he had paid a dollar for it.

He was charged with "buying a half pint of gin," and was released on $500 bond. His case will be tried shortly.

Association Sets Dates For Fairs In North-Eastern Ohio

Seven different classes of races will be carried for all race meets held next fall at fairs included in the northeastern Ohio fair circuit.

This was determined at a meeting of representatives of the various fair associations just concluded at Yonkers, N.Y.

In the trotting class, the events will be 2:28; 2:24 and 2:24; 2:20; 2:18 and 2:14 events.

O. R. Beckwith of Jefferson, Ashland county, was elected president of the fair circuit for another term while H. E. Marsden of the Columbiana county fair board was again re-elected secretary. Both of these officers are entering upon their 16th year as such officials.

The Trumbull county fair will open the season at Warren, Aug. 12, 13 and 14, and will be followed by the Ashland county fair at Jefferson, Aug. 19, 20, 21 and 22. The Kinsman fair association, an independent organization will have its fair at Kinsman, Aug. 26, 27 and 28. The Mahoning county fair at Canfield will be Saturday, Aug. 30 and Sept. 1. Labor day there being no fair between the two days on account of Sunday.

It has been determined that the Columbiana county fair at Lisbon will continue four days and nights this year, opening Tuesday, Sept. 16 and closing the night of Sept. 19. This will be the first season for a night fair at Lisbon.

Police Believe Bomb Hits Wrong Target

CHICAGO, Feb. 13.—A powerful bomb, which police believe was aimed at the wrong business establishment, exploded here today in front of a welding shop owned by Michael Dunay, causing damage which he claimed might exceed $15,000.

Dunay told police he employed only one man, a union welder. A few weeks ago a bomb shattered the front of a paper company, adjoining the welding firm.

The blast today wrecked the front door, an automobile and parts of valuable machinery.

GOITRE NOT A DISEASE

Milwaukee Doctor Makes Re-markable Discovery

Milwaukee Wis.—It has been brought to light by scientific research that goitre is not a disease and is not to be treated as such.

D. A. A. Rock, Dept. F-13, Box 757 Milwaukee, Wis., a prominent goitre specialist for over 24 years, has perfected a different method of treatment for his patients that has proved remarkably successful. This same method is now being used for a home treatment of goitre cases all over the country with astonishing results. The doctor states that goitre is a condition which grows worse with neglect and recommends immediate attention no matter how small the growth may appear. He strongly opposes needless operations.

Dr. Rock is the author of a book that tells in a simple way about treating goitre at home. He has published this book at his own expense and will send a copy free to anyone who writes him today.

NEW YORK SHOE STORES ROBBED

100 Robberies Occur In Concerns During Past Seven Years

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—If you feel that you just must become a hold-up man, here's a friendly tip—don't include Thom McAn shoe stores in your itinerary.

For the McAn company, weary of being a barometer for hold-ups, have decided to slash each sale in their 400 New York stores in concrete.

400 Robberies
Within the seven years the stores have been operating here, 400 robberies—one to a store—have beset the management and clogged the police blotter. "Stick 'em up" has become more than a command to employees of the shoe store retail stores than dot Manhattan—its mighty near a slogan.

The latest indignity occurred recently when a detective assigned to guard a group of stores was knocked down with a toy revolver and his service pistol taken by a bandit.

The company is more concerned about the safety of their clerks and managers than about the robberies in this new order, according to Ward Melville, vice president of the Melville shoe company, operators of the stores.

Employees Beaten
"A number of our employees have been beaten severely in attempting to frustrate thieves. Building the sales in concrete will offer further protection for them in that it will tend to dissuade potential bandits," Melville said.

That "Crime Doesn't Pay" is forcibly shown in the McAn robberies. Melville pointed out that the monetary loss due to the 400 hold-ups approximately hardly $2,500.

Police Search For Hit-Skip Motorist

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 13.—Police today are searching for a hit-skip motorist, whose automobile struck Miss Rachel Moore, 17, and left her lying unconscious in the street late yesterday.

The girl was taken to University hospital, where an examination showed that she had sustained severe scalp lacerations. The girl was stunned and was unable to tell police anything about the accident.

CHICAGO, Feb. 13.—Another "trouserless" taxi driver told his woes to police here today after the "Pleading Tom" girl bandit and her male escort held him up at the point of a gun, robbed him of $14 and compelled him to undress.

The latest victim is Leroy Barker, who wrapped his taxi blanket around his shivering form. Indian-fashion, and dashed into a police station to report his predicament. He is the sixth victim of the girl who makes her prey dash to as to avoid pursuit.

Radio Parties For Dairymen of Ohio

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 13.—In an effort to combat the butter surplus which is affecting the dairy industry throughout the country, two state-wide radio "parties" are to be given, it was announced here today. The parties will be held February 14 and February 18, from radio station WAIU at Columbus.

Dairymen's locals throughout the state are to hold meetings on those nights to receive the broadcasts, which are to be from 8:15 to 8:45 p. m. Prominent figures in the dairy industry in Ohio will appear on the program.

The Food That Fights Fat

It's a gland food, now used to correct the known cause of so much excess fat. Doctors now employ it the world over. And now, without exception, multitudes are gaining new youth and beauty, vim and vigor. You see the results wherever you look. Fat is the exception now. Marmola prescription tablets embody this modern method. People have used them for 22 years—millions of boxes of them. Some of your own friends, doubtless, can show you what they do.

Let them bring you what they have brought to so many. The results will delight and amaze you. A book in the box explains the effects. Go now and ask your druggist for a $1 box of Marmola. You see the results wherever you look.

PRESBYTERIAN SOCIETY

Five members of the Missionary society of the A. M. E. Zion church were guests of the Women's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon at the church.

They were: Mrs. L. L. Woods, wife of the pastor of that church; Mrs. Stanley Mills, president of the Missionary society; Mrs. Laverne Johnson, Mrs. Robert Massey and Mrs. Ella Banks. Mrs. Woods was educated in a Presbyterian school in the south, and she gave a talk about the missionary work among people of her race. Mrs. Mills offered prayer and Mrs. Johnson sang a solo.

Mrs. Henry Anderson had devotionals. A paper on "Chosen" was contributed by Mrs. J. H. Campbell. Announcement was made for the World's day of prayer on March 7. Missionary societies of the city will unite for this occasion and the service will be at the First Friends church.

The Mahoning Presbyterian meeting will be on March 11 and 12 at Lisbon.

HOMEMAKERS CLUB

Select readings added interest at a meeting of the Vernal Grove Homemakers club Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Arlan Fuhs, southwest of Salem.

Mrs. Fuhs had the Bible reading. Some of the select readings related to Washington and Lincoln. Those who had the readings were: Mrs. Ralph Crawford, Mrs. Milton Crawford, Mrs. Charles Hoopes, Mrs. Howard Burton and Mrs. W. J. Beckburn.

Mrs. Josephine Murdoch gave the Zodiac signs of the birth of the members, and this feature afforded merriment.

Guests of the club were Mrs. John Althouse and daughter, Miss Bernice Althouse, and Miss Marjorie Fuhs. Lunch was served. Mrs. Frank Fuhs, who lives near the Salem-Winona rd., will be hostess at the March meeting.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

A marriage license has been issued to George O. Tullis, formerly of Alliance, employed as a warehouseman and Miss Emma Veneman, of East Liverpool, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Veneman. They are to be married at East Liverpool by the Rev. O. L. Benedict.

Louis Vanke of Akron and Miss Mary V. Richard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Richard of Salem, have obtained a marriage license. They were married by Mayor John Davidson at Salem, this being the first marriage ceremony that has been performed by Mayor Davidson since he took office.

FARM WOMEN'S CLUB

Members of the Farm Women's club are studying "Personal Appearance" this year and at a meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harry Miller, Benton rd., the subject study was "Posture—Its Effect on Health and Looks." Miss Hilda Franke presented a paper on the subject. Lunch was served.

Mrs. Andrew Schlusser, Garfield rd., will entertain the members at the March meeting. Miss Edith Holmberg, of Lisbon, will speak.

METHODIST WOMEN

Circle 2 was in charge of a meeting of the women's organization of the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon at the church, with about 85 in attendance.

Piano solos by Doris King and Mrs. Harold Babo and a reading by Anna Wagner composed the program. Refreshments were served.

After June five circles will compose the organization instead of six. Talks about the re-districting of the circles were given by Rev. and Mrs. S. A. Mayer.

NOBLE GRANDS

The Past Noble Grands association of Home lodge No. 110, Daughters of Rebekah, held a meeting Wednesday evening at the hall, South Broadway ave. After the business session there was a social period with refreshments.

The members are making a quilt for the room, which the Rebekahs furnish at the Odd Fellows home, at Springfield. The next meeting will be on March 12.

STAR CLUB

Mrs. Fred Reeves, of Salem, was included in the guest list at a meeting of the Star club Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Yengling, Benton rd. Verses about Abraham Lincoln were read. Fancy work was a diversion while the members visited. Valentine appointments were used in the lunch.

There will be no March meeting and the April meeting will be with Mrs. Abel Mead, Benton rd.

JUNIOR MUSIC CLUB

Meeting Wednesday evening with Miss Ruth Percival, Cleveland ave., members of the Junior Music club sang negro spirituals. They discussed this class of music and Steven Foster's compositions. Refreshments were served at the social period. In two weeks the members will meet again.

JOLLY CHRISTIAN CLASS

The Jolly Christian class of the Methodist church, taught by Mrs. J. L. Culp, will hold a Valentine party at 7 p. m. Friday at the church.

BRIDGE CLUB

Miss Martha Wire entertained her bridge club associates Wednesday evening at her home, East Fourth st. Two tables were in play in the games. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dodds, of Cleveland, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Treat, Cleveland ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Solbert Greenberger and son have gone to Florida.

Young Girl Faces Trial as Rum-Runner

14-Year Girls In Suit For Divorce

CADIZ, O., Feb. 13.—Edna Atkins Ryder, of Hopeville, near here, at the age of 14, is in a divorce suit against Norman Ryder, who she married last August 28 in Williamsburg, W. Va. The case is being heard in the Harrison county court here.

The 14-year-old wife charges that her husband has refused to live with her, and claims he has never contributed to her support.

"Friends Were Amazed; Konjola Worked Wonders"

Lady Received Surprise of Her Life When She Put New Medicine To Test

MRS. D. W. WRIGHT

"What years of suffering and what expense I could have escaped had I known of Konjola long ago," said Mrs. D. W. Wright, 629 South La-Zelle Street, Columbus, Ohio. "After every meal I suffered terribly from gas bloating which seemed to affect my heart. My liver was sluggish; my blood pressure high and I had frequent dizzy spells and awful headaches. Constipation and nervousness contributed to my misery."

"After many other medicines had failed to do any good, this new Konjola saved the day. Within a week the improvement in my condition was marked, and in four weeks I was feeling better in every way than I had for years. I have a fine appetite; my bowels are regular and I can eat anything. My friends remark how well I look and I never fail to tell them that I owe my health to Konjola."

Konjola is sold in Salem at all J. I. Leese drug stores and at all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—Adv.

HOOVER LOSES FISHING MARK

Wife of Guest Captures Largest Prize Of Party So Far

LONG KEY, FLA., Feb. 13.—Presidential guests having run away with all the major fishing honors thus far, President Hoover set out early this morning to redeem his own reputation as a fisherman.

He went back today to the same spot, about six miles off here, where Mrs. Stene, wife of the associate justice of the supreme court, landed a 63-pound sailfish after a two-hour battle. This fish is the record for the presidential party, and equals within five pounds of equaling the season's record for the Long Key Fishing club.

The executive is showing the beneficial effects of his brief holiday already. The hot sun has tanned him a deep brown, and he seems to be enjoying himself thoroughly.

Last night just before retiring, he transacted some minor business which had been sent down from Washington in the mail pouch. For the most part it consisted of signing some nominations of minor members of the diplomatic service.

Penitentiary Looms, Man Ends His Life

LIMA, O., Feb. 13.—Despondency, because of a penitentiary sentence which was imposed for violation of the liquor laws, today was blamed for the suicide of George Batesof, 52.

Batesof was to pay his fine yesterday or go to the penitentiary. He was unable to pay the fine and chose death rather than imprisonment. He recently pleaded guilty to a charge of possessing liquor. He shot himself through the head.

Salem Boy Leads O. S. U. Riflemen

COLUMBUS, Feb. 13.—Herbert W. Arnold, 225 Franklin ave., Salem, representing Sigma Delta Rho fraternity in competitive rifle shooting at Ohio State university, today led the field with a score of 98 out of a possible 100 shots.

Arnold, a junior in the college of commerce and administration, established the record Tuesday night. The next highest mark is only 94 out of a possible 100 shots.

Fake Salesmen Are Trapped By Jokes

MT. VERNON, IND., Feb. 13.—A practical joke by David Aldredge, local garage manager, resulted in the downfall here of allegedly fake salesmen for a New Orleans clothing firm. R. C. Neighbors and Fred Lamb, the two salesmen, were putting on a campaign here for orders for workmen's clothing at a bargain price. They were collecting numerous down payments with their orders.

Hearing that some of his fellow workmen had placed orders with the salesmen, Aldredge wanted to have some fun with them. He told them they had been duped and would never get their goods.

The mechanics took the joke seriously. They wired the Union Joe Manufacturing Company at New Orleans, La., whom the salesmen claimed to represent Aldredge, and they waited until the reply came by telegraph. It stated: "Men unknown. Hold them."

Police arrested the salesmen.

WASHINGTONVILLE

The Pythian Sisters held their fortnightly euchre party in their hall on Tuesday evening. Honors for high score were won by Mrs. George Pirth and Thomas Dairymple, and the consolation gifts fell to Mrs. Curtis Grindle and Frank Souffer. Lunch was served. Another party will be held in two weeks.

The Sunday school class of the Methodist Sunday school, taught by Miss Wilma DeJane, were entertained on Tuesday evening in the home of Miss Mary E. King. A business session and social time with a Valentine box proved interesting entertainment. Contests were enjoyed with Misses Mary H. King and Elaine Bell winning honors.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Miss Lillian Tingle. Enoch Vaughn of Missouri is visiting in the homes of his brothers George and Clark Vaughn.

Miss Wilma DeJane and Russell Smith were East Palestine visitors on Sunday.

Glenn McNeel and Ed Detmold, of Detroit, spent Sunday with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Weikert, daughter, Florence, and Miss Sarah Davis were East Liverpool visitors on Sunday.

Solomon and Vaughn Nichols arrived at the home of their sister, Mrs. Owen McClun, on Monday afternoon from South Gate, California, having been called home by the serious condition of their sister, Mrs. Wm. Angliemyer, of Leetonia. The trip was made by auto, leaving South Gate on Tuesday, Feb. 4.

Born on Sunday a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Mark Klingensmith. Henry Richards and Mrs. Melvin, and daughters, Ethel and Florence, of Niles, were Sunday visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Grindle.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Paisley and Mrs. James, of Youngstown, were Wednesday evening guests to dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Warner.

Music Master Writes Another Classic

Eugene Ysaye, world-famed violin virtuoso, whose bow has electrified the world and won him a wife in America as well as the conductorship of the great Cincinnati symphony orchestra, sits serenely at his desk, where he works day after day on his own swan song. Beside the master stands his young American wife, the former Miss Jenne Dineen, of Brooklyn.

MINERS PROTEST WAGE REDUCTION

More Than 600 Leave Work When Cut In Pay Is Declared; Organizers Present

BELLAIRE, O., Feb. 13.—More than 600 miners of the Poshatan Mining company are on strike here today following a walkout as a protest against a proposed wage reduction.

The miners staged the strike yesterday following a mass meeting which was addressed by David Martin, of Cleveland, organizer of the National Miners' union, and Miss Lil Andrews, organizer of the youth's section of the union.

Miss Andrews is at liberty under $5,000 bond in connection with a charge of criminal syndicalism. She is waiting a decision on her appeal from conviction on the charge. She was arrested following a "Red Day" demonstration at Martins Ferry several months ago. She is under sentence of an indeterminate term in the Marysville reformatory for the crime.

Alleged Bootlegger Faces Penitentiary

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O., Feb. 13.—John De Blasius, convicted Martins Ferry and Bellaire bootlegger, was convicted on a third-offense indictment in the Belmont county court here today. The jury was out only 30 minutes.

A motion for a new trial is expected, and, if it is overruled, De Blasius will be given a penitentiary sentence.

The case recently was the basis for a squabble between district and county law enforcement officials.

First Trip Taken To Hospital At 78

ATLANTA, Feb. 13.—At the age of 78, Miss Sarah Goudsby, of Atlanta, went to the hospital for the first time.

While working in the kitchen of her home she turned too quickly and wrenched her hip. She was taken to a local infirmary.

"It's the first time I ever saw the inside of a hospital," she said. "No, I don't like it, but the nurses and doctors are nice."

of corporations. Just as conservative politicians would oppose the appointment of a radical insurgent like Brookhart to the supreme court, so a Democratic-insurgent coalition is opposing Hughes on the ground that he is a "reactionary." His opponents have at all times conceded the nominee's legal ability, personal integrity and moral qualifications.

The only question before the senate was whether it would confirm as chief justice a lawyer who fought a five-cent fare, who argued that a return of 625 percent on capital investment of a corporation was "confiscatory," who contended radio broadcasting companies had an absolute right to the air, who protested against congress enacting a law stamping out corruption in senatorial primaries and who declared the federal courts had jurisdiction over public utilities, whose entire activities were within the confines of a single state.

Norris Open Battle
Senator Norris (R) of Neb., insurgent leader, opened the fight. At first even he conceded the "unanimous confirmation" of Hughes. Then he and Senator Blaine (R) of Wis. opposed it in committee. Next, Senator Borah (R) of Ida. joined the opposition.

So too did Senator Carter Glass (D) of Va., a former secretary of the treasury. After that, the opposition leaders at last declared Hughes could be rejected if the vote could be delayed for a week, so that senators could hear from their constituents.

The fight has grown so fast administration spokesmen came to Hughes' defense. They protested against barring him from the supreme court on economic grounds and pointed to his eminent record as recorder of the American bar as justifying his appointment.

"We'll hold the senate in session today until Mr. Hughes is confirmed," said Senator Watson, of Ind., Republican leader. "This attack on his views is not justified."

Bandits Like Sweets

TOLEDO, O., Feb. 13.—Toledo police are searching for two "sweet-toothed bandits," who held up and robbed a drug store here and then demanded two chocolate sodas.

DEATHS

JACOB F. GLASS
Jacob F. Glass, 75, of New Chambersburg, died of complications Wednesday afternoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Heim, south of New Alexander, where he was spending the winter. He had been in ill health for some months.

Mr. Glass had spent his life at East Rochester. He was a farmer by vocation.

He is survived by his widow; nine children: four brothers, W. L. Glass of Salem; L. C. and George Glass, Alliance; John Glass, Missouri; one sister, Mrs. Margaret Evans, New Chambersburg.

Funeral service at 2 p. m. Saturday will be at Moultrie chapel; interment in the cemetery there.

DRY ATTACK

The eighteenth amendment to remain in the constitution against the will of the majority of the people of the United States," she said.

"It seems to me that neither wet nor dry should object to empowering the people of the United States themselves to determine whether or not the eighteenth amendment should remain in the constitution."

"This committee has power to report this resolution to congress and to do its part toward referring the prohibition question to the highest authority in the United States—to the people themselves."

Drys express their confidence that they have an overwhelming majority of the people in favor of the eighteenth amendment. If so, why should they not welcome this test?

German Firm Plans Plane Factory Here

BY JACK A. BRADBURY
 International News Service Staff Correspondent

Kansas City, Feb. 11.—A $5,000,000 airplane factory will be established in the United States by the Junkers Airplane Company of Germany as soon as the company can decide on the factory site, according to Col. James C. Fitzmaurice, American representative of the company.

Col. Fitzmaurice, who was one of the three Bremen fliers, conferred recently with Kansas City business men on the possibility of establishing the factory here.

According to the Junker representative one-half of the capital for the proposed American factory would be raised in New York and the other half would be obtained in the city where the factory is to be located.

The plant would be operated in connection with the Junkers plant at Dessau, Germany, and German engineers would be brought to the United States to establish the plant.

"It is the plan of the Junkers company," said Col. Fitzmaurice, "to interchange engineers between the German and American plants. It is believed both plants will benefit by an interchange of personnel and ideas."

Col. Fitzmaurice believed that a successful east to west flight of the Atlantic will not be made until better ships are obtained and a means of navigation not dependent on the magnetic compass is worked out.

"The flight can be made," he said, "and will be done in time as a regular thing. But the ships made today are not fit for it."

She'll Make It Work

ELECTRIC PHONE

MADE BY YOUTH

11-Year-Old Boy Invents New Apparatus For Switchboards

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—Prodigy of an electrical age, an 11-year-old boy has been discovered in this city who at an age that is generally conceded to be the age of childhood pranks has invented an automatic telephone switchboard without a switchboard.

The achievement was successfully demonstrated recently when the boy, Irvin Spruth, carefully lifted the invention from a cardboard box and sent his 14-year-old brother, Joseph, Jr., to the woodshed with the end of the phone while he set up the other end on a chair in the living room.

Moment of Anxiety
 There was a tense moment of anxiety broken finally by the harsh notes of a buzzer and the flashing of a red light. Pride lighted the smiling face of Irvin as he said into the instrument: "Hello, Joe. I guess it's working all right." The voice from the other end answered: "You bet it is Irvin."

"Irvin has been experimenting with electricity ever since he was a tot three years old," the proud mother explained. "Not long ago he wanted to go to an electrical school. We took him to one and when he explained his telephone they had him make a drawing of it. 'They wanted him to take $75 for it but Irvin didn't want to sell it.' A note of fear crept into her voice as she added anxiously: 'But that man put Irvin's drawing into his desk and kept it. They told me Irvin was too young to go to school.'"

Used Odds and Ends
 Irvin has not conducted his experiments with expensive material but with odds and ends of "junk" he and his brother have picked up. His father is not a man of means in fact at the present time he is without work because the department of the mail order house where he worked has been discontinued.

This second Thomas Edison appears as healthy as other boys of his age even though he has avoided playmates and devoted most of his time to electricity. His mother pointed out that he wired his own home with side wall lights and assisted in the lighting work of a new building his father erected on the rear of their lot.

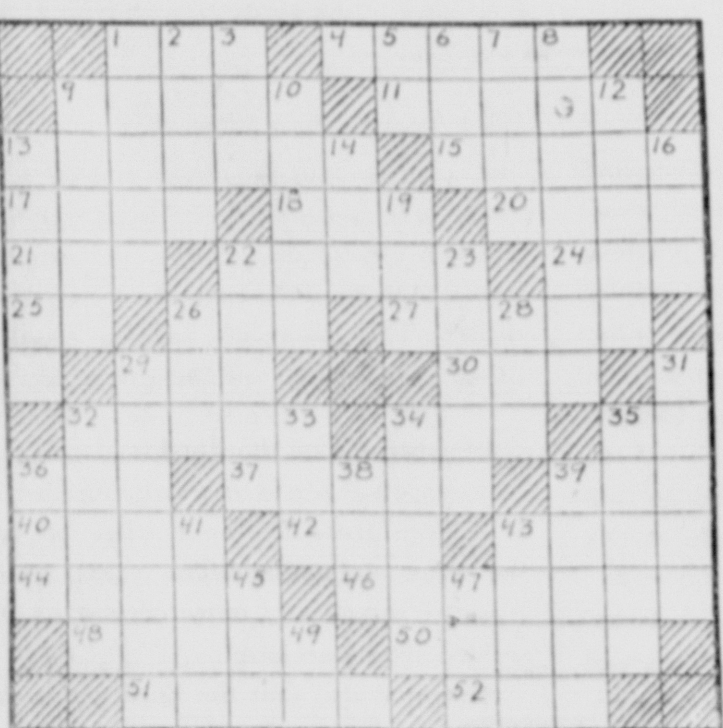

Mother Dies From Injuries In Fall

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 11.—Mrs. Ella Grady, 69, mother of 11 children, is dead here today from injuries which she suffered nearly a week ago when she fell down the stairs of her home.

Ten of Mrs. Grady's children are living. Five sons served in the world war one of them dying from bullet wounds which he received in action.

Through The Microphone

As the new year begins there are a number of factors that will make 1936 an excellent year from the standpoint of the radio listener. About to purchase a radio receiver, says Major Herbert H. Frost, chairman of the Radio Manufacturers Merchandising committee.

Broadcasting stations are starting to render better programs and better entertainment as time goes on and the radio industry itself, its manufacturers, its distributors, and its dealers are also learning through experience to render better service in putting radio sets into American homes more efficiently and more economically.

The radio industry daily is finding itself better able to give the public improved service, both in the quality of the receiver, themselves and in the quality of the entertainment which is brought to the home by radio. Methods of manufacture are improving which guarantees to the public radio products of more reliability and increasingly longer life. Methods of distribution are improving which will bring to the public better service, greater values and lower prices. Broadcasting is improving which means that radio entertainment will progress on higher planes as time goes on and broadcasters learn through experience to entertainment it wants to receive.

The public, at this time, finds itself able to receive more radio value per dollar than has been the case since the inception of radio broadcasting in 1921. Now, and throughout 1936, therefore, the public may invest in radio receiving sets with complete assurance that they are getting the fullest possible values.

Receiving sets bought today will pay high dividends in daily entertainment and education and present price levels guarantee that the financial investment itself will be well sustained over a long period of time.

There are no radical changes of which we know at the present time that will tend to disturb present methods of reception or tend to render obsolete sets that have been purchased within the past year.

The industry itself is stabilizing. It has just gone through another period of upheaval out of which will come clearer thinking in all branches of radio art—research, manufacturing, distribution and broadcasting. The nation as a whole is going through a period of readjustment to which the radio industry has been no exception, but we of the radio industry agree with the men of other industries, who look forward with the utmost confidence to prosperity in future years.

The purchasing power of the public has not been impaired to any great extent, and the average American will still invest in those commodities.

Prohibition Holds Strong, Is Caim

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—There is a stronger congressional backing of prohibition now than ever before, both in Congress and in the state legislatures, Ernest H. Cherrington, general secretary of the World League Against Alcoholism, asserted today in an address before the Editors' advisory section of the International Council of Religious Education.

In discussing the ten years of prohibition Cherrington stated the "permissive system" used for three centuries in the United States failed to "mitigate the evils of alcohol traffic."

Winter cracks a wicked whip in Ohio.. and it's mighty tough on motor oil..

New SOHIO MOTOR OIL free from harmful wax

NEW Sohio Motor Oil has changed old ideas of winter motoring for thousands. Ohio motorists who used to think a certain amount of lubrication trouble in cold-weather could not be helped, have had a pleasant surprise.

New Sohio refuses to be subdued by the stinging lash of Ohio's sharp, shifting weather. Right through the winter, even when the mercury dips to zero, this special motor oil makes starting easier—gives swift, smooth lubrication as the engine warms up—keeps an unbroken film of protection between moving parts under the intense heat of long, high-speed driving.

The amazing flexibility and sturdiness of this 100% paraffin base motor oil is the result of a newly developed process of refining... a process which removes the harmful wax at 50° below zero. This leaves an oilier oil—smoother—tougher—longer lasting—the ideal lubricant for Ohio motors.

New Waterford Furniture Factory Declares Big Dividend for Year

NEW WATERFORD, Feb. 12.—At a recent meeting of the stockholders of the New Waterford furniture factory some important resolutions were passed.

The capital stock was increased from $50,000 to $100,000; the number of directors was decreased from 11 to 7, and the name of the company was changed to the Kenmar Manufacturing Company.

A 25 per cent dividend was declared in December.

Directors elected were: F. C. Maurer, K. M. Rode, J. H. Koch, Joseph Magill, W. C. Springer, H. H. Garrod and John Koch, Jr. The directors organized with F. C. Maurer as president; K. M. Rode, vice president; J. H. Koch as secretary-treasurer, with H. H. Garrod as assistant.

Officers elected at the Presbyterian Missionary society include: Miss Anna Bevan, president; Mrs. A. A. Streng, recording secretary and Mrs. Ida Wheeler, secretary of literature; Mrs. W. A. Drasdo, vice president and Inetta Blackburn, treasurer. The society purchased one of the Philippine Treasure chests and one of the Sunday school classes will fill it to send to the children of the Philippine Islands.

Mrs. Ella Johnson, Mrs. S. E. McCune and Miss Emma Mae Taylor are improving from their recent serious illnesses. Mrs. William Bretz does not improve.

S. E. McCune is attending the convention of the Eastern Seaboard Hardware association in Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Smith and children were recent guests of Cortland relatives.

The Women's Foreign Missionary society, the Carrie Barge, and the Sunday school board of the Methodist church have purchased Philippine Treasure chests for the children of the church to fill and send to the children of the Philippine Islands. This is being sponsored by the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, through one of its various commissions.

It's a Big Problem

Speaking of the new motor cars, one Kansas editor isn't certain whether the figures refer to the number of cylinders or the miles per hour.

It is not believed the London conference will go far enough to abolish air guns and archery.

Today's Pattern

THE designs on the new cotton fabrics give sufficient life and variety to a frock, yet this model gains added smartness through side skirt flares that afford unusual grace and freedom. There is a becoming jabot which falls from the slender neck line.

Colorful percale, pique, dimity, gingham or wash silk would be charming for this style, with the neck, cuff bands and skirt flares bound in a color that harmonizes with the print of the fabric. This binding may be purchased by the yard.

Designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30. Size 16 requires 3½ yards of 36 inch material. No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model. The pattern has ample and exact instructions. Yardage is given for every size. A perfect fit is guaranteed.

Chicken Blood Transfusions Hit

Stanford University, Cal., Feb. 4.—Chicken blood transfusion does not appeal to Dr. Edwin William Schultz, Stanford university bacteriologist.

Expressing his opinion of the chicken blood transfusion performed in Lincoln, Neb., recently, to save the life of a boy critically ill with pneumonia, Dr. Schultz said:

"I should certainly hate to have chicken blood running through my cerebral circulatory system, as the corpuscles in a chicken's blood are considerably larger than those in a human's."

The procedure followed is not new, Dr. Schultz said, except that chicken blood is a new form of foreign protein to be used.

The possible value of such a treatment is that it may increase the bodily temperature, and a fever has curative effects on the disease.

Who remembers the old days when you could drive around in the winter ruts for five miles without putting a hand to the steering wheel?

THIS MAN PUZZLED---LOST 19 POUNDS OF FAT IN 22 DAYS

Wants To Know Where The Fat Went To

This man was fat—60 pounds overweight—wanted to stay home every night and nurse the old arm chair—getting in and out of his auto was all the exercise he cared for—his desire for any form of activity had died years ago.

Then one night as he read the evening paper cheering news broke for him—he read the story of Kruschen Salts—what it was doing for the fat folks of America—tens of thousands of them—they were losing fat—plenty of it.

The next morning he started—one generous half teaspoon of Kruschen in a glass of hot water before breakfast—every morning the same—in a week he wanted to walk to business—he didn't know why—but the urge for activity seemed to flood his whole being and he followed the urge.

His wife was astonished—delighted—and when one evening he said with eagerness—"Let's go to a show to-night, dear,"—her joy was unbounded.

That virile Kruschen feeling that means more energy—more vigor—more ambition took possession of him—he took long walks every day—and enjoyed them.

He got on the scales one evening and came home with sprightly step—"eleven pounds of fat gone" he almost hollered—he danced a few steps with the alertness of youth—and his wife danced with him.

In 22 days 19 pounds of unneeded and unwanted fat had left him and he marveled—and his friends marveled with him.

"Where did it all go to?" he asked and no one could answer.

Kruschen Salts drives poisonous waste from the system—it acts on liver, kidneys and stomach—and keeps them in tip-top condition—it keeps you feeling fit and fine all the time. The J. H. Leave Drug Co., Floding's drug store and Bolger & French's and leading druggists America over sell Kruschen Salts for 85c a bottle which lasts 4 weeks.

How Ford Methods CUT COST OF DISTRIBUTION

Lower profits in selling save you at least $50 to $75 in addition to the many savings in manufacturing

TWENTY-SEVEN years ago the Ford Motor Company was formed to provide reliable, economical transportation for all the people. That original purpose has never changed. The constant effort in every activity is to find ways to give you greater and greater value without extra cost—frequently at lowered cost. This applies to distribution and similar important factors, as well as manufacturing.

For the Ford Motor Company believes that its full duty is not only to make a good automobile at the lowest possible price, but to see that there is no waste, extravagance, or undue profit in any transaction from the time the car leaves the factory until it is delivered to your home. It is obvious that hard-won savings in production will be of little value if they are sacrificed later through excessive selling costs.

EVERY purchaser of a motor car has the right to know how much of the money he pays is for the car itself and how much is taken up by dealer charges. If these charges are too high, one of two things must happen. Either the price of the car must be raised or the quality lowered. There is no other way. The money must come from somewhere.

In the case of the Ford, the low charges for distribution, selling, financing and accessories mean a direct saving of at least $50 to $75 to every purchaser in addition to the still greater savings made possible by economies in manufacturing. Ford charges are not marked up or increased to cover a high trade-in allowance on a used car.

The profit margin on the Ford car has always been fair to both the dealer and the public. Within the past three months, it has been possible to effect still further economies. Today, the discount or commission of the Ford dealer is the lowest of any automobile dealer. The difference, ranging from 25% to nearly 50%, comes right off the price you pay for the car.

THE business of the Ford dealer is good because he makes a small profit on a large number of sales instead of a large profit on fewer sales. He knows, too, that the extra dollar-for-dollar value of the car makes it easier to sell and more certain to give satisfactory service after purchase.

Consider also that the Ford car is delivered to the purchaser equipped with a Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield, an extra steel-spoke wheel, and bright, enduring Rustless Steel for many exterior metal parts, in addition to four Houdaille double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers and fully enclosed four-wheel brakes.

If for any reason you wish to buy certain small accessories, you will find that these, too, are sold at the usual Ford low prices. Replacement parts are also available at low prices through Ford dealers in every section of the country.

THESE are important points to remember in considering the purchase of a motor car. They show why it is possible to put so much extra quality into the new Ford and still maintain the low price. They are also the reasons why more than 35% of all cars sold today are Model A Fords.

A Real Indian Herb Tonic TAN-A-WA

Read the letter that Mrs. Mary Renfro, of 2623 South Delaware St. Anderson, Ind., has to say about Tan-A-Wa Tonic:

Dear Sirs:—
Your TAN-A-WA tonic has done wonders for me. I had no appetite and was weak and rundown. I was bothered with constipation and had awful headaches. No medicine seemed to help me. A friend told me one day to go and get a bottle of Tan-A-Wa, and after the third dose I could see the difference and after I had taken five bottles I was a well woman. Tan-A-Wa sure was a blessing to me.

TAN-A-WA is good for rheumatism, constipation and a system builder.

UNHAPPY GIRL ENDS HER LIFE

Dies After Inflicting Wounds In Chest With Rifle; Relatives
Fuzzled Over Notes

CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 13.—Evelyn Worley, 13-year-old daughter of Thomas Worley, is dead today because she was unhappy.

The girl ended her life by firing a bullet into her chest late yesterday. She died in General hospital a few hours later.

A slip of paper was found in the room where the girl shot herself. On one side of the paper was written, "You do not have to get rid of me. I will send myself to daddy. I hate to leave my sweetheart, Luther Carpenter, because he has been so good to me. Love to all. Relatives could not explain the sentence, 'I will send myself to daddy.'"

An hour before the girl shot herself, her stepmother, Mrs. Ada Worley, took two rifles away from her. She had been using them as models for a drawing. She used the music of a phonograph to cover up her steps as she recovered the weapons, and shot herself. She staggered into the kitchen where her stepmother and a sister were cooking, and collapsed.

Gunmen Shoot Two Women In New York

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—Carmine Barilli, 27, said by police to have a long record, and an unidentified woman companion, were slain by gunmen today as they walked on a main thoroughfare in the Bronx.

While a confederate waited nearby in an automobile, the four killers, working in pairs, stepped from the car with revolvers drawn. Four shots took effect.

Robbery was eliminated as a motive of the killings when detectives found the gunmen made no effort to remove valuable rings worn by the couple.

Sobbing Girl Shows Marked Improvement

ATTLEBORO, Mass., Feb. 13.—Miss Violet Michael, 18-year-old girl who started to cry when her mother went away on a visit, and then could not stop, was reported improved today. She has been sobbing in periods of 15 to 20 minutes with respite of half an hour. Previously she had cried constantly for more than 80 hours.

Dr. Earl White said that by using chloral he expected to have the girl cured within 26 to 48 hours.

Hospital Cot For Faster In Warren

WARREN, O., Feb. 13.—Under the watchful eyes of physicians who marvel at the man's iron-like constitution, Richard Stewart, Warren tug merchant, continued his "hunger strike" into its 29th day today. Stewart insisted today that he has no intention of breaking his fast for some time. The man's weakened condition, however, prompted his removal to city hospital by jail authorities who were fearful of his collapse from the effects of his self-imposed starvation.

METHODISTS ANNEX NARROW VICTORY

Little Gems, Episcopal Win By Wide Margins Wednesday Night

Victories by the Lease Drugs and First Methodists by close margins featured city Class B contests played at the Memorial building gym Wednesday night. The Drugs trimmed the Fender Benders, 33-31 while the Methodists annexed a 19-13 decision over the Trinity Lutherans.

Little Gem shoe-shiners and the Episcopal church toilers registered decisive victories in the other two of four games played last night. The Gems trimmed the Pottery by 31-22 score while the Episcopalians furnished a surprise by trouncing the Baptists, 27-16.

Each of the four games was well played. Summaries follow:

CLEVELAND GIRL SETS NEW MARK ON BOARD TRACK

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 13.—Stella Walsh of Cleveland took a graceful bow before the athletic world today in the 15th annual Meadowbrook club games here last night. Miss Walsh shattered beyond recognition the women's world indoor sprinting record, when she whizzed off 220 yards in 26 and 4-5 seconds.

She clipped two seconds from the old record held by Ellen Hough and Catherine Donovan and the new figure also equals the outdoor record of Miss Brough.

Further Miss Walsh may be given a new record in the 45-yard sprint, previously not made standard, for she did that distance in 3 and 4-5 seconds.

Track fans were further thrilled when Chet Bowser of Newark, N. J. C. named out Jack E. C. C. Notre Dame luminary of oval and gridiron in the 45-yard invitational sprint.

Ray Conger, former Iowa State star, running in the colors of the Illinois A. C. won the John W. Overton one-mile run. Sol Furth of New York university won the 45-yard sprint handicap.

Conger ran a beautiful race in time of four minutes and 20 seconds the best performance of the season.

Judge Finds Couple Too Old for Divorce

Hammond, Ind., Feb. 13.—There is such a thing as being too old for divorce, according to Judge Clyde Cleveland of Lake county superior court here.

Judge Cleveland refused to award a decree to Mrs. Bertha Hahn, 72, who sought freedom from Charles J. Hahn, 75, on allegations of non-support and cruelty.

"When people reach the age that you two have, you shouldn't be seeking a divorce," Judge Cleveland told the couple.

WINONA

Mrs. Louisa Bundy who has been ill at the home of her uncle, Wilson Steer, since the death of her father, Eliza Steer, was able to be taken to her home at Colerain Wednesday. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Alice Crawford, of Philadelphia, who has been spending some time with her here. Wilmer Satterthwait took them in his car.

William Llewellyn of Philadelphia visited relatives here Wednesday on his way home from a ten days business trip through the south west including points in Mexico and Texas and coming on by way of Chicago.

Clement Holloway arrived here Wednesday evening from Seattle, Washington, having been called here by the illness of his mother, Mrs. Anna Oliphant. He will attend her funeral Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Bailey left by motor for Iowa Wednesday noon, called there by the sudden death of Mrs. Bailey's oldest brother. They were accompanied by Wilford Edgerton who will visit his sister, Bertha Edgerton McGraw and other relatives at Whittier and Springfield, Ia.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creosote is a medical discovery with two-fold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membrane and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membrane and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the source of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

BOVE GETS SETBACK YOUTZ IN CORNER

Joey Bova is more determined than ever to get into the fight game as a result of the one-round kayo he received from Jimmy Lee. Sebring youngster, at Salsville last night. The Salem lad, though disappointed in his debut effort, is far from disgusted with the game and will start earnest training the first of next week for future battles.

Bova looked good in the first minute of the fight against Lee but lacked experience that resulted fatally for him. Despite the fact that Lee is his acknowledged superior in ring-mastery, the Salem lad outclassed him for a brief spell and appeared well on the way to victory until he ran into the one stiff right that sent him to the canvas.

It was a breach of good faith that resulted in Lee's opposing Bova for the Salem lad lacked knowledge of boxing essentials which are so necessary when he faces a veteran scrapper. He was originally billed to meet a Salsville youth but the latter, due to parental objections, was unable to appear. Then an Akron lad was placed on the card, and he, too, failed to put in an appearance and Lee, 12 pounds heavier than Bova, was run in. E. J. O'Brien, promoter of the embryo, had definitely promised Bova's managers that he would use a lad with no more experience than Bova had.

"Ducky" Youtz, Salem young man who knows quite a little about the fight game, and Roy Tibbs, local tonsorial artist, were in Bova's corner. About 20 Salem fight addicts made the trip to the village for the affair.

Sharkey Finds Himself Rated Harder To Beat Than Scott

By DAVIS J. WALSH

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—They are offering 13 to 5 odds the street today, with all takers handicapped, that Sharkey will finish one-two-three in front of Scott down there in Miami, 12 nights hence, and personally, I think that's splendid because, as soon as I can find a good, reliable place to print my money for me, I'll take some of that short end myself. Stated off the last performance of this pair, Sharkey isn't a gambler. He's an investment. On this basis, he is at least 2-1-2 times the fighter Scott is and doubtless he will proceed to prove it, except—well, for one thing, he can't seem to convince himself that he isn't more than 2-1-2 times the fighter Scott is. I show you a good prize fighter. I'll show you an over-confident or an under-confident Sharkey and I won't have to show you anything Sharkey will do it. He will show you a very short evening.

Strange Ring Warrior

A strange man, he is liable to do anything at any time. I have seen him make great fights, bad fights, good fights, terrible fights.

The piston of a locomotive is less an in-and-out than this remarkable Lithuanian who is given to dramatizing even his spare moments out of the ring. Give him a man he can hate with real cordiality and he will make a fight that will send you off into the night, muttering wildly in your delirium. Convince him that push-over awaits and the thing he is liable to do is nothing all evening.

almost a comedy of contradictions. In all of his 40-odd fights to date, Sharkey really has been great only in two and these were with men whom he couldn't learn to love for themselves alone. He disliked Loughran. He hated Maloney. Both fights were won impressively by the only thing that really impresses him—a clean knockout.

Consider him, however, in the rest of the starts he has made since he got up there in the adult money some three years ago. McTigue? He thought Mike was a chump and almost blew the fight. Dempsey? He was over-confident with this guy that he made no effort to protect his body in the first round and probably still was feeling some of these punches when he went out in the seventh. Heaney? Just another chump.

Honey Proved Tough
The only trouble was that the chump was headstrong and refused to lose. Risko? This is a fight he blew by winning it before he started. Christner? Here was another chump who made Sharkey come from behind to win.

Stribling? This was supposed to be morning gallop but I never heard that he didn't finish it with his mouth open.

It would seem, from this outline, that the trouble with the man is that it is difficult to get him interested in anybody except himself. This fighter is a chump; that one is a boso; another is a bum. It seems, too bad, in fact, that we can't arrange to have Sharkey hate all the other prize fighters because dislike is his inspiration while mere contempt brings a debilitating reaction. He also is nobody's sap when an opponent inspires his respect.

"Folks, I'm going to look Harry Wills tonight as sure as—" said he over the radio just before he answered the bell with the man who had all the rest of them scared stupid. Jack Sharkey was almost a great fighter that night.

Bova Kayoed In Fistic Debut

Inexperience Fatal To Salem Lad In First Pro Battle

Joey Bova's inaugural professional fistic exhibition came to an abrupt end one minute and 10 seconds after he entered the ring in the first fight of a scheduled 22-round show at Salsville Saturday night.

Bova, a Salem youth lacking in experience and wide knowledge of ring essentials, was kayoed in the first round by Jimmy Lee of Sebring, veteran of 13 pro battles. Lee, incidentally, registered his tenth victory when he won from the Salem lad.

The bout lasted less than two minutes, the end coming suddenly after Bova apparently had the edge for the first minute and 30 seconds of action. He left himself wide open, however, and the more experienced Sebring battler took the advantage to send over the finish line, a right to the face that sent Bova sprawling to the canvas.

Bova started out fast and forced Lee into a neutral corner with a barrage of rights and lefts and knocked him down for no-count. To Salem fans it looked like an early finish for the Sebring veteran for Lee was dazed and surprised. Bova failed to follow up his advantage and in a mixup in the center of the ring left an opening that resulted in his defeat.

Bova Outweighed

Lee outweighed Bova by 12 pounds despite the fact that ring-side announcements gave his weight as 130. He was run in against the Salsville when two other scrappers, originally scheduled to face Bova, failed to appear.

Only three of five battles carded for the show were held but each proved a crowd-pleaser and the final ended in a riot when Young Kelly, Akron battler who was opposing Joey Long of Alliance, attacked Long's manager in the fifth round.

Joe Hanna, Alliance, won by a decisive margin over Tiger Smith of Salsville in the indiffer while Kelly was awarded the verdict over Long when Long refused to come out of his corner for the sixth round.

Long had a slight advantage in the main go until the near riot occurred in the fifth round. The two are billed to meet again in Salsville, in three weeks.

Wesleyan took its first step towards the pace-making position last week when it took advantage of the Bearcats' crippled condition and downed them in a sensational 41-32 victory at the Queen City, Monday night the lads from Delaware trounced the Athenians by a 42-32 score.

Wesleyan showed real championship ability in its annihilation of Ohio and outclassed the southern states all the way. Ohio staged a brilliant rally in the third period but Floyd Siegenstaler, the lad who performed wonders for Alliance High teams against Salem High basketballers several years back, tallied five field goals in the fourth quarter after being held scoreless for the first three periods.

Bishops Have Chance To Advance In Game With Miami Passers

Ohio Wesleyan university advanced into a tie for first position in the Buckeye Athletic association with the Cincinnati Bearcats through its decisive defeat of the Ohio university Bebeats this week. The victory placed Wesleyan on even terms with its most bitter cage rival each team having five victories and one defeat.

EVANSTON, ILL., Feb. 13.—Capt. Branch McCracken and Claron Voller stood out today as the heroes of Indiana's rapid fire basketball victory over Northwestern here last night in which the Hoosiers scored 39 points to their opponents 34.

Wittenberg The Bearcats May Again Tie The Bishops For First Honors When They Play Ohio Next Week

but Wesleyan can retaliate when it clashes with the wailing of the circuit, Denison college. Cincinnati's final game next week will be played against Miami and it appears that the titular race will again be decided for both the Bearcats and Bishops should continue through their week's conquests without sustaining defeat. However either Miami or Ohio can upset the dope by downing the Bearcats but from all predictions and appearances history will again repeat itself and the Cincinnati and Wesleyan basketballers will share the Buckeye championship at the end of the current season as they did in 1929.

Things have been quiet this week in the Ohio conference and Wooster is still the best in the circuit with seven straight victories. Little Kenyon furnished a sensation when it noosed out a strong Capital outfit by a 31-30 score. The Akron Zippers stayed among the leaders by trouncing Case, 52-27.

"SUNNY SIDE UP"

Two great stars, an all-star supporting cast, a delightful story, plenty of comedy and a half a dozen sensational song hits is the combination presented in "Sunny Side Up," Fox Movietone musical comedy which had its opening performance before a capacity audience at the State Theatre last night.

Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell, making their musical comedy debut, gave an amazing performance. Both have pleasing voices and sang their song numbers in a manner that brought bursts of spontaneous applause from the opening night's audience. Miss Gaynor also blossoms out as a dancer and proves she is as proficient in the terpsichorean art as she is in acting. Sharon Lynn, Frank Richardson, Marjorie White and El Brendel, in the supporting cast of principals, gave excellent performances and received their fair share of acclaim.

Dorothy Brown and Henderson, who authored "Sunny Side Up," from dialog to words and music, have "clicked" with their first audible picture production and proved they are as talented in this medium as they are in concocting successful stage musical comedies.

THE HOME KITCHEN

By Jeannette Young Norton

"I thought you could beat any steak," complained the young housekeeper who had to throw out as at total loss a slice of chuck she had treated as though it were porterhouse. The word steak means merely a slice of meat cut from the less bony part of the animal. Several cuts, rightfully known as steak at the butcher's cannot be given the quick broiling or frying that makes such a popular dish with busy housekeepers. Tenderloin, porterhouse, sirloin—these are the cuts for quick cooking, because of their tenderness.

Grand Theatre. It is Lewis' first Vitaphone production and a picture well worth seeing. It is entertaining and lively with a story that suits the personality of this famous star of vaudeville.

The story opens with Ted and his mother and father arriving in America. Ted is to have a great career in a symphony orchestra, for music is a tradition with the Molnar family. When he becomes a jazz musician after a fruitless search for concert work, his father is shocked and heart-broken. However, all ends well, with Ted a musical hit, just as he is in real life.

Alice Day also assists in making this picture a hit. She is a beautiful and capable leading lady. Others in the supporting cast include Julia Swayne Gordon and Lawrence Grant.

But chuck, flank and round steak are coarser in texture. That doesn't mean they are less desirable. In fact, many prefer them because of their flavor. They make up generously in their savoriness what they lack in tenderness.

As a matter of fact, when given the right slow cooking, any of these cuts will be just as tender as a quickly-broiled porterhouse. Round steak is usually chopped up and makes the best kind of meat loaf or hamburger—although it can be given a slow cooking or casserole cooking with excellent results. They can also be prepared as pot roast.

Pot Roast

3 pounds of chuck, flank or round steak

1 bunch carrots

2 onions

3 stalks celery

1 small turnip

1 lb. salt pork

1 cup canned tomatoes

Melt the salt pork in a large saucepan. Rub the meat with flour and when the fat is hot, place the meat in the pan, browning quickly on all sides, to keep the juices in. Cook all the vegetables together in enough salted water to cover, and when tender, rub all through a colander. Pour this thick sauce over the meat, then cover and cook over a low flame for three hours, or more, until the meat is tender. Then add salt and pepper to taste, and

Steak Stew

2 lbs. flank steak

2 tablespoons fat

2 green peppers

1 onion

1 tablespoon tomato catsup

1 teaspoon salt

1/2 teaspoon pepper

Cut the steak into cubes, and sprinkle flour over all. Melt the fat in a saucepan and when hot, quickly brown the meat all over. Add hot water or bouillon to cover and cook over a low flame for one and a half to two hours, until meat is tender. Add sliced onions and peppers after the first hour, and seasonings just before the dish is finished. Serve with spaghetti.

If Baby has COLIC

A cry in the night may be the first warning that baby has colic. No cause for alarm if Castoria is handy! This pure vegetable preparation brings quick comfort, and can never do the slightest harm. Always keep a bottle in the house. It is the safe and sensible thing when children are ailing. Whether it's the stomach, or the little bowels; colic or constipation; or diarrhea. When tiny tongues are coated, or the breath is bad. Whenever there's need of gentle regulation. Children love the taste of Castoria, and its mildness makes it suitable for the tiniest infant, and for frequent use.

And a more liberal dose of Castoria is always better for growing children than some needlessly strong medicine meant only for adult use. Genuine Castoria always has Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the wrapper. Prescribed by doctors!

LEADING HOSPITALS dry, sterilize and bleach linens, uniforms, etc., this QUICK, CONVENIENT WAY . . .

In the modern hospital the advantages of fresh, sweet-smelling, thoroughly sterilized linens, blankets, uniforms, etc., are fully recognized. To obtain the desired results, many hospitals have equipped their laundry-rooms with gas-fired Clothes Dryers.

Clothes Dryers enable these institutions not only to dry large quantities of laundry almost as fast as the pieces can be washed, but to do a thorough job of sterilizing and bleaching as well.

The rapid absorption of water which occurs within the dryer makes for a softness and whiteness not possible to obtain by any other drying method. By allowing the pieces to remain in the dryer for a short time after they are dry, all germ-life is destroyed.

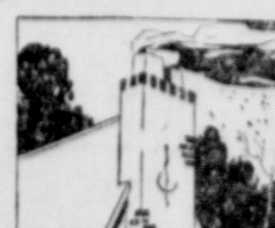

Why not apply hospital standards of sanitation to your own laundry drying? A Clothes Dryer costs less than most washing machines, and this first cost is soon offset by savings of time, labor, and clothes. It is a worthy companion to your washer and ironer . . . a source of great convenience and better results.

1. A modern Clothes Dryer saves carrying heavy baskets full of clothes to and from the yard.

2. It saves the time and effort required to hang the pieces on the line and take them down when dry.

3. It brings June's balmy weather to your basement, with full protection from soil, dust, dirt, smoke.

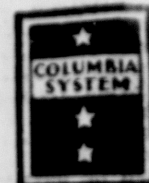

4. It prevents mishaps like this which spoil your morning's effort and cause wear and tear on clothes.

5. It enables you to wash, dry and iron any time of day . . . any day you wish. Makes you independent of the weather.

AVOID THAT FUTURE SHADOW*

By refraining from over-indulgence

Men who would keep that trim, proper figure, women who prize the modern figure with its subtle, seductive curves—eat healthfully but not immoderately. Banish excessiveness—eliminate abuses. Be moderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. When tempted to excess, when your eyes are bigger than your stomach, reach for a Lucky instead. Coming events cast their shadows before. Avoid that future shadow by avoiding over-indulgence if you would maintain that lithe, youthful figure.

*Be Moderate! . . . Don't jeopardize the modern form by drastic diets, harmful reducing girdles, fake reducing tablets or other quack "anti-fat" remedies condemned by the Medical profession! Millions of dollars each year are wasted on these ridiculous and dangerous nostrums. Be Sensible! Be Moderate! We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will bring modern figures or cause the reduction of flesh. SONS GUESTS AT ROTARY MEETING

Many Present at Annual Event; Youngstown Pastor Speaker

COLUMBIANA, Feb. 12.—One hundred forty were present at the Father-Son banquet sponsored by the Columbian Rotary club at the Presbyterian church Monday evening.

A supper was served at 7 o'clock by the L. S. Sunday school class, music being furnished by the Bernard accordion trio of Leetonia and East Palestine. Henry Staley led the group singing. Rev. J. C. Strubel gave the invocation, and Rev. C. A. Funk pronounced the benediction.

Rotary President H. W. Hammond presided at the meeting, introducing C. W. Griswold, chairman of the committee on arrangements, and the speaker of the evening, Rev. W. E. Hammaker of the Trinity M. E. church, Youngstown. Dr. Hammaker gave a talk on "Who Are Your Heroes?" directing his remarks especially to the boys and young men present. He eulogized the life of Abraham Lincoln.

The C. C. L. observed guest night at their meeting at the home of Mrs. F. W. Trader, N. Elm St. Twenty-four members and visitors were present at the address of Miss Jean Frye, dean of girls at South High school, Youngstown. Miss Frye discussed child training, following which Mrs. Roy Harrold presented her with a bouquet in behalf of the club. A quartette composed of Dick Fitzpatrick, Mrs. F. W. Trader, Mrs. H. R. Riddle and Mrs. D. H. Hepburn, sang. Mrs. Fitzpatrick sang two solos. Miss Martha Zimmerman played piano solos and Jackie Trader completed the program with two songs.

An Investment that does not fluctuate in value— Life Insurance

OWNERS of life insurance have had occasion recently to compare the stability of this form of investment with that of even the highest grade securities.

A chart of the market price averages of leading stocks for twenty years shows an irregular line that rises and dips, sometimes vertically, with "peaks and valleys".

There are no "depressions" in the investment values of life insurance policies. They do not fluctuate with business cycles. From year to year, the 44 million Metropolitan Life Insurance policies show a steady increase in values to policy-holders.

The man who regularly invests part of his earnings in life insurance can go to sleep each night with the knowledge that he is building an estate of the greatest security and with a sure investment return for every dollar paid in.

Life insurance is an investment whose value constantly increases the longer it is kept in force.

Speaking of these new long skirts

. . . not that there is any need to . . . Dayton Thorobred Tires with their white sidewall and red stripe have been in style with discriminating motorists for the last ten years or more. Not that you are not discriminating . . . in case you don't ride on Dayton's . . . you probably just haven't had much time to give much thought to the matter. But there is no excuse now that we've brought the situation to your attention. If you don't believe us, check up on the fact that about 99% of the other rubber companies are now making white sidewall tires and charging about 10% more for them. Dayton gives you a better tire and does not charge as much.
